Exciting opportunity for female club members of POC

Pachaug Outdoor Club is excited announce a women's only concealed carry workshop for our club members.

Workshop will consist of 8 weekly training sessions

6 classes in the clubhouse 1 ½ - 2 hours

Wed 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM 10/19; 10/26; 11/2; 11/16; 11/30; 12/7

2 live fire range days 4 hours each Sat 11/5 and 12/10 10 AM - 2 PM outside pistol range

Rain dates 11/9 and 12/14 5 PM - 9 PM indoor pistol range

Sessions will include introduction to concealed carry, use of force for civilians in legal self-defense (when to shoot and when not to shoot), shooting fundamentals for self-defensive shooting, introduction to the concealed carry holster including drawing from a holster and holster options, solving concealed carry problems including reloads and stoppages and situational awareness.

The live fire sessions will be held on week 4 and week 8

Our instructor will be Gregory "Cruz" Grutter. Cruz is a USMC military combat veteran. His accomplishments include being a USMC scout sniper and instructor, competitive shooter, master firearms teacher, tactics instructor, chief firearms instructor at Smith & Wesson Academy, founding member of the Dept of Homeland Security/Federal Air Marshall firearms program, law enforcement trainer at various departments and now runs a consulting company focusing on firearms training, tactics and armorer qualifications.

Participants are encouraged to come and learn valuable content in a comfortable environment where all questions will be welcome and answered. All levels of shooting experience welcomed!
